REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Sheriff,
C. S. RADCLIFF.
For Treasurer,
J. M. GREELEY.
For County Clerk,
JOSEPH SARGENT.
For Register of Deeds,
ED. NELSON.
For Coroner,
J. B. GROGER.
For Surveyor,
O. B. HAMILTON.
For County Commissioner, 1st District,
W. B. SHOLL.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

It is submitted on all hands that the Republican county ticket nominated at the convention last Saturday is the strongest ever put in the field in this county.

For Sheriff we have C. S. Radcliff, a man tried and proven found wanting in the various positions he has hitherto held. After the most spirited contest that ever came off in this county and which was conducted on the plan of "everything to beat Radcliff," he was the choice of nearly two-thirds of the convention, and was not looked upon with disfavour by many of the other delegates.

For County Treasurer J. M. Greeley was nominated without any opposition. His nomination was but the endorsement of the acts of a faithful, honest and meritorious officer.

For County Clerk Joseph Sargent received the unanimous vote. There has never been a man seriously mentioned as his opponent during the entire contest. His nomination was predicted six months ago, for Saline county never had a better Clerk—or one so universally respected and admired as Mr. Sargent.

The nomination of Ed Nelson for Register of Deeds gives satisfaction to a people who compose of least one-third of the voters of Saline county. It has long been regarded necessary, in view of the largely increasing numbers of Swedish taxpayers and persons having business at the court house, to have some person of that nationality in office who may look after the interests of this people. Mr. Nelson is one who not only possesses the confidence of the entire Swedish people but is popular with the Americans.

The office of Coroner was again given to Dr. J. B. Groger, who has served the county faithfully and well during the many years he has held it.

Judge O. P. Hamilton, an experienced surveyor, was made the nominee for the office of County Surveyor. The Judge is well and favorably known throughout the county.

The nomination of W. B. Sholl for County Commissioner was a splendid act. He has been connected with the administrative affairs of our county so long, and is so thoroughly conversant with the routine of a Commissioner's duties, that the nomination could not have shown a person better fitted for the job.

Thus have we reviewed in brief a splendid ticket, which will be elected by a handsome majority at the coming election.

The Garfield fund now amounts to about $350,000.

BRIDGEPORT NEWS.
A rain fell Friday last that makes wheat look fine. Farmers are almost all through seeding. Some fields look as if Mr. Hopper had been sharpening his plow on the young and tender blades of wheat.

I think the chintz bug is keeping quiet, at least I haven't noticed any damage done by him yet.

The Bridgeport Milling Company are doing all they can to accommodate their customers, but owing to the scarcity of water they are nearly a week behind in their shipments.

Some one of our Assaria citizens said to me some time ago "When you write again give Assaria a puff." Well I do not know, sir, that you need any assistance from outsiders, for I notice when I pass around that almost every man is smoking cigars, and as I hardly ever smoke I would be rather difficult to give you a puff, especially at this season of the year. The wind blows so much from the south it ought to blow your own reporter up to say something more, instead of N. O. More.

Enoch White makes it lively times when he comes to Bridgeport. He is a man that will trade, as everybody knows, but it seems that he and Mr. Gregory can trade easier and quicker than any other two men in town. They have traded land, if the parties like the situation. They start for Greenwood county to-day to complete the transaction. Mr. Gregory is trading with a view of raising and handling stock in said county.

Considerable ado about the Bridgeport correspondent—who is who is. Mr. Gregory says he will have to figure it out so that he may see about that business of getting lost. Well, go for him, Gregory.

A Family Episode.
A wife followed her husband down to the gate as he was waiting for a train, and kindly said to him:
"Will you please see that I have a new hat to suit me?"
"Yes, dear," he answered, "but you know how hard up I am. As soon as I see my way clear you shall have the dress and a new hat to boot. Be patient, be good, and your reward shall be great."

Forty minutes after that he emerged from a restaurant with a big basket, and a fish pole, and a bottle of liquid, and a rich and he was just lighting a twenty-five cent cigar when his wife came along.

"What! you here?" he exclaimed.
"Yes, I was going to the market. Where are you going—what's in that basket?"
"I was going to carry this fish pole around to a friend on Jefferson avenue," he modestly answered.
"And that basket?"
"This basket—well, I was going to take it to the orphan asylum as a present to the children. It's a donation from six leading citizens."

"William, I don't believe it!"
"Don't talk so loud!"
"William, I shall talk louder yet!" she exclaimed. "I bet you are going fishing!"
"Mary, have I ever deceived you?" he plaintively asked. "I never have. As a proof of my sincerity you can take this basket to the asylum yourself."

"And I'll do it," she promptly replied as she relieved him of it.
"No, sir, I had it! You'd better hurry up with that fish pole, as the man may wait, and be careful how you stand around in the hot sun!"
She left him there. He watched her take the car for home, and then he returned the fish pole and crossed the street and said to acquaintance:
"Tom, I'm suffering with the neuralgia, and the excursion is off till next week. Too bad, but we can never tell what a day may bring forth."

There was chicken and pickles and other good things on the table at dinner, but he never smiled. Even when his wife wished she were an orphan, he never betrayed the gloom in his heart. It was only when she handed him the bottle he had so carefully tucked in the basket, and he saw it labeled "Good for little children," that he said:
"Mary, it is an awful thing for a wife to get the impression that her husband is a cold-blooded liar."

"It must be," she said, as she took the other chicken leg.—Detroit Free Press.

Experience the Best Guide.
The constant practice most women have in caring for the sick makes them often more skillful than physicians in selecting medicines. The reason why women are everywhere using and recommending Parker's Ginger Tonic is, because they have learned by that best of guides—experience—that this excellent family medicine speedily overcomes drowsiness, periodical headache, indigestion, liver complaints, pain or weakness in the back and kidneys, and other troubles peculiar to the sex.—Home Journal. See adv.

Chicago Ahead.
All the world now looks up to Chicago as the great western metropolis of America, being far ahead of all competing cities; put none the less so, in its line, is Electric Bitters. From their real intrinsic value they have advanced to the front, and are now far ahead of all other remedies, positively curing where everything else fails; to try them is to be convinced. For sale by all druggists at fifty cents per bottle.

Bogus Certificates.
It is no vile druggist's trick, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, herbs, &c., and puffed up by long, bogus certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Exchange. See another column.

Parties having any kind of live stock to sell will do well to have Wm. R. Gels sell it for them at public sale on the last two days of our fair, Thursday and Friday of next week. Sale will commence at 10:30 each day.

AN OPEN LETTER.
The Persons Afflicted With Fever and Ague, or Any Disease Caused by Malarial Poisoning of the Blood Would Do Well to Read.
Salina, Mich., July 5, 1881.
Messrs. Wheelock, Keeler & Co., New Orleans: Gentlemen: I have sold your Willoughby's Fever and Ague Tonic for the last three or four years, and have given the best of satisfaction.

The first I bought was from your agent, who told me to guarantee it and the house would back the guarantee. I did so, and not a single bottle of the lot was returned. Since then, I have bought of the jobbers, and not direct from you, and in the whole time, and on a guarantee, we have sold a great many hundred bottles, and have had three bottles returned to us and we have refunded the money.

I think this is a splendid showing, and we guarantee it every time when I am asked.
Yours respectfully,
RICHARD H. HUNTLEY.
Per E. A. Richards.

In a subsequent letter they say: "Salina, Mich., July 15, 1881.

You can use our letter in any way you choose for we gladly recommend you to use it for who may need it."
Yours respectfully,
RICHARD H. HUNTLEY.
